

Walter A. Hivners Now At Home in Inglewood

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Arthur Hivner, Jr., are now at home at 3553 Lynwood Rd., Lynwood, following a honeymoon in the San Bernardino Mountains. The couple were married June 27 at the St. Lawrence Catholic Church. Mrs. Hivner is the former Patricia Catherine Quinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Quinn, 5019 Marion Ave., Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hivner of South Gate are parents of the bridegroom.

Over 200 guests attended the 10:30 o'clock ceremony conducted by the Rev. James Ara. Mrs. Patricia Fleener, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Marie Epifanie who sang the "Ave Marie."

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white nylon lace and tulle fashioned with a scalloped neckline and chapel train. A Juliet cap held the fingertip veil and the bridal bouquet was of white roses encircling white orchids.

Mrs. James Fulks, wearing yellow chiffon and carrying blue carnations was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Marvin Gussman and Misses Linda Hivner, Roberta Leitzman, and Marie Epifanie.

All wore blue chiffon and carried yellow carnations.

Gary Nisbet carried the rings and Robert L. Hivner stood as best man. Ushers were Lawrence Lucas, Ronald McBride, Richard Quinn, Kenneth Hivner and Gary Formoe.

A reception at the Knights of Columbus hall followed. The bride was graduated from Torrance High school and is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co.

The bridegroom is a graduate of South Gate High school and attended Compton college.

At Marineland

Dr. and Mrs. Marshall B. Buckner were recent guests at the Marineland Restaurant on the tip of the Palos Verdes peninsula for cocktails and a seafood dinner in the circular "Porpoise Room."

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

MEATS. Reports indicate little general change in supply and price except for "feature" cuts. Cold cuts offer proteins in a convenient form.

EGGS and POULTRY. Buy eggs which are refrigerated at the market . . . and hurry them home to your own refrigerator. This is particularly necessary during our unusually warm spell. Eggs are such an easy and nutritious food to use. They are the busy homemaker's boon. CHICKENS and TURKEYS continue at low cost. Perfect for indoor and outdoor meals.

NEWS FROM FIELDS, ORCHARDS and VINEYARDS. SNAP BEANS coming from nearby fields. All areas from San Francisco to Los Angeles soon in production, promising supplies all through July.

CARROT supplies are normal. Some growers get today's harvest on the retail stand early tomorrow. Shippers take pride in delivering really fresh produce.

CELERY is promised in fairly generous amounts all summer.

CORN from almost every district in California. Packers try so hard to get corn delivered to you tender and sweet. Much of the crop is cooled quickly in ice water as soon as possible after it is harvested, and is kept cool on the produce stands. Buy corn that feels cool to the touch.

CUCUMBERS. A few pickling sizes are in. LETTUCE, ROMAINE and other SALAD GREENS we hope for in amounts to fill the bill for the summer salads everyone wants. Outlook is favorable.

BELL PEPPERS . . . fine quality.

SQUASH . . . all summer varieties abundant.

TOMATOES, according to reports, are ahead of schedule both for the fresh market and the processors. Quality is variable.

AVOCADOS. Hass variety plentiful. Some Anaeims, Nabal and Dickinsons.

BERRIES . . . Strawberries, Oallie, Boysen, Gooseberries, Blueberries and Currants.

APPLES. Mostly White Astrachans, Winesaps . . . last call.

GRAPES. Thompson Seedless, Cardinals and Ribiers. Zante . . . small, purple, the kind dried commercially for currants.

FIGS beginning to be a little more plentiful.

MELONS. High temperatures have created great demand for all melons. You may find them moving up in price: CANTALOUPS, WATERMELONS, most plentiful varieties. HONEYDEWS moving right along and will be with us into October.

PEACHES. Early Elbertas and a number of lesser known varieties in market.

PLUMS. Mostly Santa Rosas . . . some Tragedy and Satsuma.

186th Street

An "Aloha" party, including secret pal revealing and board meeting of the 186th Street School PTA was held recently by Mrs. Donald Dittman, president-elect, at the Higgins Brick Yard, with Mrs. Walter Stewart, presiding.

The business portion of the meeting was brief being the final meeting of the '58-'59 board. Mrs. Merrill Lindley, room representative, reported that 165 were served at the A6 picnic, 130 were students. The PTA shared half the expenses. She also thanked all those who helped with the preparations.

Mrs. Frank Garst, treasurer, gave her final report, with all bills paid.

Guests introduced were Kirk VanSooy, vice-principal, and Mrs. Blanche Wilson, from Hawaii. Mrs. Wilson entertained the group with authentic Hawaiian dances wearing a colorful costume of the Islands.

Mrs. Donald Dittman presented Mrs. Stewart with a gavel to be worn on her president's pin.

Those able to attend included Miss Ruth Engdahl, Edward Reynolds, Mmes. Herman Eisenbeiss, Paul Tobey, R. Dean Bryan, Niels Iversen, Bill Thrower, Robert Adams, J. T. Evans Jr., Norman Miller, James McMillan, Bill Hoffman, Jimmy Percy, Joseph Hoss, Ward Grantham, Roy Bjerke, and Hugh Allen.

YWCA Raises Membership Rate

Dues for the Harbor Area YWCA are now three dollars per year as a result of a by-laws change voted on at the Electors' Assembly, it was announced today by Dr. Frances Clark, Area Membership chairman.

"The raise was necessitated by increased costs, was the result of study by the Area Membership Committee which recommended the change to the Harbor Area Board. The matter was taken up further at each Branch Administrative committee. The final decision was that of the electoral members at the Assembly," she concluded.

"The YWCA is maintained by the membership dues, gifts, special ways and means projects, and the Community Chest," according to Mrs. Loraine Harper, president of the Harbor Area Board. "Membership in the Association is basic to participation in all activities," she concluded.

Other by-laws changes made included a change of time for counting annual election ballots, and an increase in the number on the Advisory Committee.

Mrs. Donald Gains opened the meeting with a brief devotional and prayer.

Reports on the Junior and Senior High School Leadership conferences were made by delegates with Judy Benson serving as moderator. Betty Blackstone reviewed the program at the Senior High conference, while Kathy Reed reported on the workshops and swapshops. Leilani Nishimoto told what conference meant to her and Denise Fouts spoke on the inspiration program of the conference.

Betty Harris summarized by saying that the conference meant a richness that no words could express, the friendliness of girls, the helpfulness of counselors, the ability to see things in the eyes of others . . . this was conference.

Both Cheryl Collier and Rosie Solano reporting on the Junior High conference told of its recreations as well as training, concluding, "We hope we can go back next year."

Flora Watson and Linda Baker, Y-Teen delegates to Senior High conference, conducted the closing ceremony.

The meeting was concluded by the singing of "No Man Is An Island" led by the conference delegates.
